PRESS RELEASE

SC SETS ASIDE CONTEMPT NOTICES TO PEMRA CHAIRMAN, SUMMONS BOL
NEWS MANAGEMENT ON FEB 6

A three-member bench of the Supreme Court comprising Justice Amir Hani Muslim, Justice Mushir Alam and Justice Mazhar Alam Khan Miankhel on Tuesday set aside all the contempt notices to Chairman Pakistan Electronic Media Regulatory Authority (PEMRA) by the Sindh High Court (SHC) and issued notices to management of Labbaik Private Ltd (BOL TV) to appear before the apex court on Monday, Feb 6, 2017.

The orders were issued in an appeal filed by PEMRA against an order of SHC which had granted stay order to Labbaik Private Ltd against PEMRA's order of prohibiting Aamir Liaquat as a host and his programme "Aisay Nahi Chalay Ga" from airing until the decision of Councils of Complaints. Eminent lawyers Zahid Fakhruddin and Kashif Hanif were representing PEMRA.
